

Learning Environment-

~Big Book-Katie Morag

~Post Office- role play

~Library books- Topic- Katie Morag Books,

Geography books on islands

Interactive display of information- maps-word mats, vocabulary

Assessment -

- Narrative Story on Katie Morag
- Leaflet on Struay
- Sea Poems
- To compare stories and characters
- To follow and write instructions
- To compare and contrast life on an island and the mainland through research, reading and discussion.

Physical Activities-

Gymnastics- (make islands from apparatus and travel in different ways from one piece to the next.)

Science-

Forces and Movement-To investigate and describe:

- How objects change their shape.
- Floating

RE-

The Way, the Truth and the Life

- The Good News
- The Mass

Topic- An Island Home- Katie Morag Stories

Spring Term- 1st half

Maths

- Weighing ingredients
- Weighing parcels
- Money

- Singapore Maths

Literacy- links to Narrative unit-Stories by the same author

- To read and discuss a selection of Katie Morag Books
- To discuss and build up character descriptions
- Hot seating of characters
- To explore settings for the story
- To learn vocabulary related to buildings/ transport/ landscape
- To develop speech using speech bubbles
- writing scripts between characters
- To make own story map
- To write own Katie Morag Story
- To learn poems about islands, sea, boats in rhyme time.
- To learn riddles from Katie Morag's book.
- To write sea poems- word process
- To research and make a leaflet about Struay
- To write a postcard/letter to Katie Morag
- To write questions they might like to ask ,about living on an island
- To address a parcel
- To write instructions for the food they have made

Art/DT-

- To make an island
- To weave to make a tartan pattern
- To wrap a parcel
- To decorate shortbread biscuits
- To make Mother's day card from Katie Morag's book

World around us-

- To look at PowerPoint on the island of Coll.
- To compare and contrast life on an island and in Hereford
- To recognise the physical and human features on island.
- To use an atlas to find the island of Coll
- To draw a simple map