precious in my eyes"

Weekly News

Our Gospel Value for March is "Kindness to others" – "You can accomplish by kindness, what you cannot by force". Publilius Syrus

Next Week It's Week 2 for School Dinners, some of our children from Seahorses & Sharks have their own Dance club on Monday after school, rehearsals continue for the "Gotta Dance" show on Tuesday after school & football training with Team Theme on Fridays for children in years 3, 4 & 5. We have two trips next week – Bears are visiting B.N.F.L. on Tuesday & Tigers are visiting Liverpool on Wednesday. Please ensure you have given your consent or your child will stay in school.

To celebrate our Catholic life in school; Sharks Class invite you to their assembly on Wednesday at 9:00 am & Tigers class are attending Mass on Friday at Sacred Heart at 9:30 am to which family & friends are invited too. Our Holy Communion preparation continues on Thursday at Sacred Heart.

Our book fair arrives on Wednesday & will be available in the school hall at 3:10 pm if you wish to browse & buy books. World Book Day Vouchers will be given to the children which can also be used at the book fair. All the children looked fabulous yesterday in their costumes – thank you for your support.

Our Friday Film club next week will be showing "Shaun the Sheep Movie" - to book go on our APP or pay online on Parent Pay, £3.50 includes film, pizza, popcorn & a drink. Finishes at 5pm.

Our swimming team won their division on Monday, with all our swimmers performing brilliantly and all making the final in their events.

There has been a massive improvement regarding children being late in the morning. Thank you for your support.

We have had a complaint from one our neighbours about litter in the garden. Please ensure all the children know to take litter home when they are leaving school. Thank you.

Also emailed home today is a questionnaire that Mrs. Burrow would like parents to complete if possible. "The barriers parents face when taking part in the life of their children's school". Thank you in advance.
